Commentary

July was volatile across global markets. The S&P 500 slipped 0.1% for the month but remained 9.4% higher year to date. The Australian dollar strengthened around 1.5% to $0.70, tempering unhedged offshore returns, while gold gained more than 2%. The US-Iran conflict drove sharp swings in energy markets, with oil prices peaking over US$100 a barrel before retreating to US $85 as geopolitical tensions eased. South Korea was particularly weak, with the KOSPI falling around 22% in July as concerns over AI spending triggered a sharp technology led sell off. Despite this unsettled backdrop, all Proactive portfolios delivered positive absolute returns.
